Description

Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center Vice President of Nursing, Miriam Dowling-Schmitt, DNP, RN, CPHQ, CENP, FACHE will be hosting a presentation on Recognizing and Responding to Moral Distress. Come join the discussion on how moral distress can affect our entire multidisciplinary team and learn useful interventions that can be applied regardless of clinical role.

Learning Objective(s)

At the conclusion of this learning activity, participants will be able to:

- Identify three symptoms of moral distress in acute care nurses.
- Differentiate between moral distress, compassion fatigue, and burnout.
- Recommend three responses to a nurse who is experiencing moral distress.

Accreditation

In support of improving patient care, Dartmouth Health is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Dartmouth Health designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 ANCC contact hour.
