Description

Please join Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center's Chief Nursing Officer, Tracy Galvin, DNP, MSN, RN, NEA-BC as she presents "Strategies to Support New Colleagues and Improve First-Year Nursing Retention at DHMC." This presentation will examine the key stressors experienced by nurses with less than one year of experience and explore how these insights are being integrated into the development and enhancement of the Nurse Residency Program at DHMC.

Learning Objective(s)

At the conclusion of this learning activity, participants will be able to:

- Describe common sources of stress experienced by newly licensed nurses.
- Identify strategies to retain new grads at risk of leaving within their first year of hire.

Accreditation

In support of improving patient care, Dartmouth Health is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Dartmouth Health designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 ANCC contact hour.
