

Geisel Academy of Educators & Scholars

Foundational Skills Series For Educational Research

January – April 2026 | Every Other Wednesday
Kellogg 201, Geisel School of Medicine, Hanover, NH & Zoom
4:00 – 5:30 pm

OVERVIEW

This Foundational Skills Series on Educational Research offers a comprehensive introduction to the unique principles and practices for Health Science & Professions Educators (HSPEs) hoping to conduct educational research. This six-session program provides the knowledge, skills, and hands-on experience necessary to design, conduct, and disseminate rigorous education scholarship.

Each 90-minute session combines didactic instruction with applied workshops, enabling participants to develop their own research projects throughout the series. Topics progress from situating scholarly interests within the literature through study design, methodology selection, and research implementation, culminating in guidance on funding acquisition and regulatory approval. Each is taught by diverse educators to meet the needs of diverse HSPEs attending these sessions and conducting scholarly work.
