Accreditation:

In support of improving patient care, Dartmouth Health is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Successful completion of this CME activity, enables the learner to earn 1.00 credit(s) toward the CME requirement(s) of the American Board of Surgery's Continuous Certification program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit learner completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABS credit.

American Medical Association (AMA)

Dartmouth Health designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Other Learners: All other learners may claim CME-designated participation credit. Consult your professional licensing board regarding the applicability and acceptance of CME-designated participation credit for programs certified for credit by organizations accredited by Joint Accreditation for Interprofessional Education.

Learning Objectives:

At the conclusion of this learning activity, participants will be able to:

- 1 Understand the workflow, workload, and human factors that prevent providers from signing notes in real time
- 2 Appreciate how professional coaching and provider-led quality improvement can help providers find agency and empowerment to consistently sign their notes in real time, eliminating after-hours charting
- 3 Recognize the importance of pairing coaching with workflow redesign led by clinician-nursing dyads in order to bring about lasting change

Dartmouth Health adheres to the ACCME's Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education. Any individuals in a position to control the content of a CE activity, including planners, faculty, authors, or others are required to disclose all financial relationships with ineligible companies[^].
