NURSING GRAND ROUNDS

Research Publishing for the Health Sciences

Presented by Elaina Vitale, MLIS

Description

Do you need more exposure to or experience with research publishing literature? This workshop, led by Elaina Vitale, MLIS, will draw from her own real-world experience with research publishing and cover a wide range of publishing topics — from best practices for increasing your research visibility, finding journals for your work, disseminating your research widely, to publishing Open Access. While not all nurses may wish to publish, knowledge of best practices will still be useful.

Learning Objective(s)

At the conclusion of this learning activity, participants will be able to:

- Identify at least two journals appropriate for publishing nurse-author work.
- Explain the benefits of publishing in Open Access.

Accreditation

In support of improving patient care, Dartmouth Health is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Dartmouth Health designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 ANCC contact hour.
