

Medical-Surgical Certification Review Course

Monday and Tuesday, September 26 – 27, 2022

Log in: 7:45 – 8:00 am

Conference: 8:00 am – 4:30 pm

Virtual Learning Activity

OVERVIEW

This two-day course is an overview of interventions that medical-surgical nurses use to promote quality of life for their clients. Using the nursing process to enhance physical and psychological well-being in clients and their significant others is inherent in the role of the medical-surgical nurse. Taking this course will provide those taking the medical-surgical certification exam with information necessary for success. The course includes a brief overview of each body system, fluids and electrolytes, as well as common pathological conditions and treatments. For those taking the exam there will be a short section on test taking tips, a review of the exam blueprint, and several practice questions.

Not taking the exam? The course provides an excellent review of the body systems and nursing interventions used as well as objective and subjective data to gather.
